"Cycle/Walk"

This is a walk with a difference, whether you enjoy walking or would like to see the scenery in comfort, letting someone else do the walking/cycling! "Cycling Without Age" has offered us an hour with trishaws, so come and make a morning of it. Why walk when you can be cycled! Walkers welcome too!

Café available for refreshments

Venue: Kent St Weir Date: Fri 2 May
Cost: $15 Time: 9am mdg

"HMAS Perth"

Discover some of the ways HMAS Perth (I) has been memorialised over time and how the vessel and its crew continue to remain relevant. Take in the details of historical banners and models. The beautiful banners on display highlight the journey of HMAS Perth (I), from its acceptance into the Royal Australian Navy in 1939 to the unauthorised partial salvage of the wreck in 2013.

Venue: Maritime Museum Cost: $24 (lunch own cost)
Date: Wed 23 April Time: 9.30am mdg

"Azelia House"

The heritage listed residence was built between 1920 and 1923 for Azelia Ley (nee Manning) and offers a glimpse into the life of a prosperous settler family living in the Cockburn district. The Museum has ten rooms, with unique displays of objects and collections relating to the history of the Manning family and the wider Cockburn district. There is also a Wagon House, for the large collection of farm equipment donated to the museum after its opening in 1983 & lunch somewhere (own cost)

Venue: Hamilton Hill Date: Wed 30 April
Cost: $19 Time: 9.30am mdg
