"40+Fabuloous"

What's the secret to a FABULOUS life? Secretly, the school teacher and mum wanted to try stand-up comedy, but she never felt brave or "rock n roll" enough. What would the school P&C and the Tupperware ladies think? 7 years into comedy, Emma no longer cares. And that feels bloody Fabulous to her.

Date: Sat 27 Jan Time: 5pm mdg Cost: $33

"Michael Shafer"

"Michael Shafer" is back in Perth and he has lots to say about the state of the world. In this brand new, boundary-pushing show, Michael will weigh into the culture wars and touch on the topics that most comedians are smart enough to avoid.

Date: Sat 3 Feb Time: 5pm mdg Cost: $35

"Pinky Swears"

"Gill Cordiner" is a Scottish stand-up comedian. Who now calls Perth her home. Winner of Perth's Comedian of the Year 2022.

Pinky Swears is a show about truths, half-truths, and downright lies. A show that explores the outrageous Scottish upbringing of Gill Cordiner. Join Gill as she weaves a colourful descriptive and downright silly story about her childhood her family and how she ended up in Western Australia. A show about love sex, death, polar bears, and pirates You won't be able to not get swept along in the fun. Pinky Swears is a lot of fun.

Date: Fri 9 Feb Time: 6.45pm mdg Cost: $40

Perth Festival Visual Arts

"John Curtin Gallery"

There is two exhibitions for the Perth Festival – Yankunytjatjara artist Robert Fielding (NT), Kinara munu Tjintu (Moon and Sun), and Walyalup based artist Susan Flavell (WA), The Horn of the Moon, 13 Goddesses and their consorts. Both artists connect to a range of material processes that come from a commitment to the places they live and work. While using different methods, both artists lovingly reclaim detritus to create new forms.

Venue: Bentley Date: Wed 7 Feb Cost: $14
Time: 10.30am mdg lunch own cost

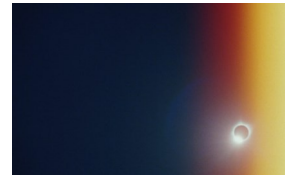

"PICA "

Three exhibitions:

Joan Jonas – Sun Signals

Helen Johnson – Follower, Leader

A.K. Burns – Untitled (eclipse)
