"Bindaring (RED CROSS)" (A)

The Bindaring Clothing Sale, is a free, 100% volunteer-run, annual fundraiser for the Red Cross. All proceeds fund WA Red Cross programs. We have raised over $3 million and we find new homes for over 98.5% of donated items.

The sale caters for all from high end designer labels to Op Shop everyday wear. Our Op Shop prices have not changed since 2017 - at the end of the day we want nothing left; our aim is to sell and re-home clothes, reduce waste and landfill and help fund the Red Cross in WA

MAY/JUNE 2025

"Old Court House Museum"

The exhibition tells the story of the trials of Kenneth Brown; a scandal that rocked the community in 19th Century Western Australia. Brown's victim and wife Mary Ann's right to safety was eclipsed by social conventions and the reputation of her husband. This exhibition examines the social and legal perceptions around accountability and provocation in the prosecution and defence of Brown.

Venue: Perth
Date: Tues 20 May
Time: 9.30am mdg
Cost: $16

"Army Museum"
