March 2022

“Sculptures at Bathers”

Starting with a fish ‘n chip dinner we move on to the 2022 Sculpture at Bathers viewing whilst the sun sets! Set in the historic Bathers Beach Art Precinct, Fremantle, the location and intimacy of Sculpture at Bathers are unparalleled, offering audiences an unforgettable cultural experience and showcasing the unique, historic atmosphere of Fremantle’s West End. This event marks an expansion for Sculpture at Bathers: the installation of the sculptures by 73 WA artists will spread along Bathers Beach, inside the gallery at Kidogo Arthouse and the outside forecourt at WA Shipwrecks Museum. In a new initiative, five works by local artists are displayed at Fremantle Ports.

Venue: Bathers Beach, Fremantle
Date: Wed 2 March Time: 5pm mdg
Cost: $14 (own dinner cost)

“Lo Quay”

Lo Quay is a vibrant riverfront front cafe and kiosk with a casual yet stylish contemporary feel that offers an exciting & diverse dining experience. A beautifully designed building in a stunning riverfront location, maybe a paddle after lunch!

Date: Mon 28 March
Venue: Wilson
Time: 11.30am mdg
Cost: $12 (own lunch cost)

“Sculpture by the Sea”

Join us for the largest free to the public sculpture exhibition in the world! Sculpture by the Sea, is staged on the beautiful Cottesloe Beach. The exhibition is featured from the sea wall, all the way along the sand towards North Cottesloe and on the surrounding grassed areas creating a beautiful sculpture park. Followed by lunch somewhere of your democratic choice!

Date: Tues 8 March Venue: Cottesloe
Cost: $14 (own lunch cost) Time: 8am mdg

“Home Movie”

Eddie Redmayne gives an Oscar-winning performance in this moving drama “The Theory of Everything” a biographical romantic drama film directed by James Marsh. Set at the University of Cambridge, it details the life of the theoretical physicist Stephen Hawking. It was adapted from the memoir “Travelling to Infinity: My Life with Stephen” by Jane Hawking, which deals with her relationship with her ex-husband Stephen Hawking, his diagnosis of amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), and his success in the field of physics

Venue: 35 Osmond Glen, Sawyers Time: 10am
Date: Wed 23 March Cost: $11 inc lunch
