“Portals of Love and Loss & Ariel’s Song”

Senior Walmajarri artist, Sonia Kurarra, has been making work prolifically since the mid-1990s and is recognised as one of WA’s most successful living artists. Portals of Love and Loss is a landmark solo exhibition of her work.

Painting the sandy billabong country along stretches of the Martuwarra (Fitzroy River), Sonia’s work reflects an intimate relationship with the river and its surrounding environment. Newly commissioned work will feature alongside key pieces that demonstrate the major themes of her practice, as well as recent experiments with leather, paper and Perspex.

Ariel’s Song celebrates how art can open a door between worlds. It is an exhibition about shipwrecked feelings, rich and strange transformations and magical thinking that places contemporary artists Luisa Hansal, Jess Tan and Wade Taylor in conversation with surreal and stormy visions from the UWA Art Collection.

Venue: Lawrence Wilson, Crawley Date: Wed 16 Feb Time: 1pm mdg Cost: $13

“Isaac Julien”

Acclaimed British film maker and installation artist Isaac Julien is widely recognised for exquisitely crafted film works and photography of arresting beauty, underpinned by a penetrating interrogation of the universal human concerns for social justice, equity and freedom. Weaving these enduring concerns seamlessly through his work, his multi-screen film installations and photographs create a poetic and unique visual language.

Featured in this exhibition at the John Curtin Gallery will be two seminal works: Ten Thousand Waves and Lessons of the Hour, being shown for the first time outside Europe and the USA.

Venue: John Curtin Date: Thur 3 March Time: 10.30am mdg Cost: $13
